

What is Included on the Topical Workshop Application Form?

PANEL WORKSHOPS:

Workshop Title (200 characters maximum): Proposal must have a short, specific title (containing no abbreviations) that indicates the nature of the session. All titles should be written in title case (the first letter of each word in your title is capitalized, except for certain small words, such as articles and short prepositions).

Intended Audience:

- Cross-disciplinary
- Clinical Practice
- Clinical Research
- Basic Science
- Translational Research

Workshop Description (200 words maximum): Provide a brief description of the session. If accepted, this text will be used to promote this session to attendees. This text will be displayed on the Congress website, Congress mobile app, marketing material, etc.

Why Should This Proposal be Accepted? (200 word maximum): Consider why this is the right time for the work to be presented. What challenge or advancement to the field does this workshop address?

How Do You Plan to Proactively Engage the Audience? (200 word maximum)

Educational Objectives: Provide 3 educational objectives that are clear, measurable, and achievable. They should describe objectives, applications, and implications of the session.

- Complete the sentence, 'Upon completion of this session, attendees will...' Use action words to begin this educational objective, such as list, describe, define, demonstrate, conduct, etc.

Panel Speakers: Include three speakers to your panel. Please note that you must select one speaker to be the chair of the panel.

- Name
- Address
- City
- State
- Zip Code
- Country
- Email
- Credentials/Designation (MD, PhD, etc.)
- Position
- Department
- Institution

- Specialty
- Is the speaker a member of IASP?
- Is the speaker a published author?
- If so, please provide the H-index and up to five publications for the proposed speaker:

Individual Presentation Descriptions

- Provide a short description of each of the three presentations. (200 word maximum)
- Key Insight: Please provide one key insight that learners will take away from each presentation. (200 word maximum)
- How is this chair/speaker relevant to this topic? What expertise and knowledge will this chair or speaker bring to this format? (200 word maximum)
- Please list up to three publications on this topic for each proposed speaker.

DEBATE WORKSHOPS:

Workshop Title (200 characters maximum): A proposal must have a short, specific title (containing no abbreviations) that indicates the nature of the session. All titles should be written in title case (the first letter of each word in your title is capitalized, except for certain small words, such as articles and short prepositions).

Intended Audience:

- Cross-disciplinary
- Clinical Practice
- Clinical Research
- Basic Science
- Translational Research

Description of Debate Workshop (200 word maximum): Please state the motion to be debated: “This house believes.....”

Why Should This Session Be Accepted? (200 words maximum): Consider why this is the right time for the debate to be held. Why is this debate topical and timely? What challenge or advancement to the field does this workshop address?

Why would the debate format serve this topic well? (200 words maximum): What aspects of the topic need to be debated?

How Do You Plan to Proactively Engage the Audience? (200 word maximum)

Educational Objectives: Provide 3 educational objectives that are clear, measurable, and achievable. They should describe objectives, applications, and implications of the session.

- Complete the sentence, 'Upon completion of this session, attendees will...' Use action words to begin this educational objective, such as list, describe, define, demonstrate, conduct, etc.

Debate Speakers: Please add a chair (moderator) and a speaker for and a speaker against the motion.

- Name
- Address
- City
- State
- Zip Code
- Country
- Email
- Credentials/Designation (MD, PhD, etc.)
- Position
- Department
- Institution
- Specialty
- Is the speaker a member of IASP?
- Is the speaker a published author?
- If so, please provide the H-index and up to five publications for the proposed speaker:

Individual Debate Presentations: Please complete the following information for both debates.

- Position Statement (200 word maximum)
 - Please write a clear position statement to describe this speaker's argument for or against the motion.
 - Argument and Presentation Description (200 word maximum)
 - Please provide a brief description of this presentation and argument.
 - Key Insight (200 word maximum)
 - Provide one key insight learners will take away from this presentation.
 - Why is this person qualified to chair (or speaker for or against) How is this speaker or moderator relevant to this topic? (200 word maximum)
 - Please provide up to three publications for the chair, or speaker
-

HANDS-OFF DEMONSTRATION WORKSHOPS:

Workshop Title (200 characters maximum): A proposal must have a short, specific title (containing no abbreviations) that indicates the nature of the session. All titles should be written in title case (the first letter of each word in your title is capitalized, except for certain small words, such as articles and short prepositions).

Intended Audience:

- Cross-disciplinary
- Clinical Practice
- Clinical Research
- Basic Science
- Translational Research

Workshop Description (200 word maximum): Provide a brief description of the session. If accepted, this text will be used to promote this session to attendees. This text will be displayed on the Congress website, Congress mobile app, marketing material, etc.

Why Should this Session Be Accepted? (200 word maximum): Please consider why this is the right time for the work to be presented.

Why Would the Demonstration Workshop Format Serve This Topic Well? (200 word maximum)

What Equipment or Devices Do You Foresee Needing for the Demonstration Workshop?

How Do You Plan to Proactively Engage the Audience? (200 word maximum)

Educational Objectives: Provide 3 educational objectives that are clear, measurable, and achievable. They should describe objectives, applications, and implications of the session.

- Complete the sentence, 'Upon completion of this session, attendees will...' Use action words to begin this educational objective, such as list, describe, define, demonstrate, conduct, etc.

Demonstration Workshop Speakers: Add four presenters to your workshop. Please note that you must select one speaker to be the chair of the workshop.

- Name
- Address
- City
- State
- Zip Code
- Country
- Email
- Credentials/Designation (MD, PhD, etc.)
- Position
- Department
- Institution
- Specialty
- Is the speaker a member of IASP? If so, please include the IASP membership number.
- Is the speaker a published author?
- If so, please provide the H-index and up to five publications for the proposed speaker:

Individual Demonstration Presentations

Please complete the following information for each presentation.

- Please provide a short description of each of the four presentations. (200 word maximum)
 - Key Insight (200 word maximum)
 - Please provide one key insight that learners will take away from each presentation.
 - How is this chair/speaker relevant to this topic?
 - What expertise will this chair or speaker bring to this format? (200 word maximum)
 - Why would the format of the demonstration workshop serve this topic well? (200 word maximum)
 - How is this speaker or moderator relevant to this topic?
 - Please provide up to three publications on this topic for each speaker
-

OPEN FORMAT WORKSHOPS:

Workshop Title (200 characters maximum): A proposal must have a short, specific title (containing no abbreviations) that indicates the nature of the session. All titles should be written in title case (the first letter of each word in your title is capitalized, except for certain small words, such as articles and short prepositions).

Intended Audience:

- Cross-disciplinary
- Clinical Practice
- Clinical Research
- Basic Science
- Translational Research

Description Format (200 word maximum): Provide a brief description of the proposed format. If accepted, this text will be used to promote this session to attendees. This text will be displayed on the Congress website, Congress mobile app, marketing material, etc.

Description of Session Content (200 word maximum): Provide a brief description of the proposed session. If accepted, this text will be used to promote this session to attendees. This text will be displayed on the Congress website, Congress mobile app, marketing material, etc.

Why is This Alternative Format Needed? Have you seen this format at other meetings? if yes, which one?

Why Should This Session be Accepted? (200 word maximum): Please consider why this is the right time for the work to be presented. What challenge or advancement to the field does this workshop address?

What Equipment or Devices Do You Foresee Needing for the Open Format Workshop?

How Do You Plan to Proactively Engage the Audience? (200 word maximum)

Educational Objectives: Provide 3 educational objectives that are clear, measurable, and achievable. They should describe objectives, applications, and implications of the session.

- Complete the sentence, 'Upon completion of this session, attendees will...' Use action words to begin this educational objective, such as list, describe, define, demonstrate, conduct, etc.

Open Format Workshop Speakers: Add 3-4 presenters to your workshop. Please note that you must select one speaker to be the chair of the workshop.

- Name
- Address
- City
- State
- Zip Code
- Country
- Email
- Credentials/Designation (MD, PhD, etc.)
- Position
- Department
- Institution
- Specialty
- Is the speaker a member of IASP? If so, please include the IASP membership number.
- Is the speaker a published author?
- If so, please provide the H-index and up to five publications for the proposed speaker:

Individual Open Format Presentations: Please complete the following information for the individual presentations.

- Please provide a short description of each of the four presentations. (200 word maximum)
- Key Insight (200 word maximum)
 - Please provide one key insight that learners will take away from each presentation.
- How is this chair/speaker relevant to this topic?
 - What expertise will this chair or speaker bring to this format? (200 word maximum)
 - Please provide up to 3 publications for each speaker